

READ. WRITE. THINK.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

READ

WRITE

THINK

WHEN STUDENTS OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES READ THEY:

- Are inquisitive learners who interpret religious authority.
- Pay attention to key information included within religious texts.
- Look for symbolism and deeper meaning.
- Pay attention to key facts and detail.

WHEN STUDENTS OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES WRITE THEY:

- Explore a range of different beliefs, values and opinions, including their own thoughts and ideas.
- Make judgements on topical issues whilst using key terminology.
- Use factual knowledge to answer questions based on religious identity.
- Critically evaluate concepts relating to religion and ethical themes, making valued judgements and arguments.
- Create essays based on critical evaluation and in-depth knowledge.
- Synthesise difficult concepts into coherent, organised ideas.
- Refer to religious authorities and scholarly opinion.

WHEN STUDENTS OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES THINK THEY:

- Think critically.
- Evaluate, analyse and synthesise.
- Question and enquire.
- Think compassionately and are open-minded.