

CRIMINOLOGY

EXAM BOARD: WJEC

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

There are four units in the course: Changing Awareness of Crime, Criminological Theories, Crime Scene to Courtroom, Crime and Punishment.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

Two of the units, Criminological Theories and Crime and Punishment are assessed externally through examinations and resit opportunities for exams are available if necessary. The other two units, Changing Awareness of Crime and Crime Scene to Courtroom are assessed internally through controlled assessment. Each unit is equally weighted.

MINIMUM GCSE REQUIREMENTS

At least a 4 in English and in Mathematics

POSSIBLE PROGRESSION PATHWAYS

Further study at university across a range of courses, including Criminology, Law, Sociology to name but a few. Careers include a range of roles across the criminal justice system, such as working in the courts, policing, probation, social work, youth justice and working with offenders/ex-offenders.